Visit Pennsburg Again

INSPECTION of the historical library of the Schwenkfelders at Perkiomen Seminary, Pennsburg, begun at the spring meeting of the Society last May will be continued May 23, when the meeting will again be held there. The day is Saturday and the library will be open at 9 o'clock, although the program will not begin until 3 o'clock.

There will be but one address, by Dr. William J. Hinke, a professor in Auburn Theological Seminary, a Presbyterian institution at Auburn, N. Y. He will speak on "The Schwenkfelders of Pennsylvania" and will point out their contribution to the religious life of America.

Trains for Pennsburg leave on the Reading from Philadelphia (daylight time) at 10.02 A. M., 1.35 and 2.30 P. M. The latter train will arrive just in time for the program. Leave Allentown 9.30 standard time. An auto bus has been engaged by the Society. It will pick up passengers at 2011 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia; the Pennsylvania waiting room, Chestnut Hill; Main Street Station of the Reading; Norristown, and Whitehall Road, Jeffersonville. The round trip is $1.50. There are regular auto buses from Allentown, Boyertown and Collegeville every hour. There are also trolleys from Norristown and Pottstown to Collegeville.

By auto from Philadelphia or Pottstown follow William Penn highway to Perkiomen bridge. At Perkiomen Bridge Hotel turn north on the state highway which follows Perkiomen creek. About 2½ hours from Philadelphia. Let the clan gather!

Wants to Get In

At a recent meeting of the Governors of the Society inquiry was made as to the possibility of forming a group of honorary members of those who like our company but have not Schwenkfelder blood. The decision was to retain the original idea of the Society.

Still Searching

Mrs. L. L. Righter has not given up hope of finding some indication as to the landing place of the St. Andrew. She has read the Pennsylvania Gazette of the year the main body of our ancestors arrived and the coming of the vessel was noted, but the paper did not say where the boat docked. Has any one a suggestion how the landing place may be discovered? We want our "Plymouth Rock" to be in the right place.

We Break into Print

An editorial column in the Public Ledger last February was devoted to a review of this little publication and a long statement of the coming of our ancestors to this city. The entire editorial staff bows in unison to the Ledger.

Brief Items

Dr. E. E. S. Johnson, custodian of the library, will be on hand at Pennsburg to explain the relics.

Mrs. Marion Hartranft Stockham, of Perryman, Md., is a new member. She is the only living child of the late General and Governor John F. Hartranft. There is room for more members.

Mrs. Elmira Heebner Clark has the distinction of being the first member in Philadelphia of the Soroptimist Club, a new organization for women similar to Rotary for men. There are clubs in many cities.

The summer home at Phoenixville of Judge Porter, a vice-president of our Society, was burned several weeks ago with the destruction of many heirlooms.

Dr. Anders, our president, has been appointed by Mayor Kendrick a member of the committee to have charge of the religious activities and gatherings sponsored by the Sesqui-Centennial. Mrs. Anders is at present in Paris, but is expected home soon.

News items for this paper may be sent the chairman of the committee at 723 Witherspoon Bldg., Phila.
